The village I am looking for is Huang (Vong/Wong) Village 潢村; the hamlet is 河清 or 河清里 Ho Tein Li. The nearest market is 三合圩 Xäm-Gâp-Huî which is the seat of Sanhezhen 三合镇.

Village DB Search

[Search function is under development. Comments are appreciated.]
Search tips: Search results don't include subheungs. You can search for pinyin with tones using numbers, e.g., shan1.

Search by surname

Search for villages with surname Chan, Chin (陳) Search

Search by other

Search for Villages whose name in Cantonese romanization starts with Search

From the drop-down list in “Search for villages with surname” I selected “Chan, Chin (陳)” and click on the “Search” button. This search produced 724 villages which have the surname “Chan, Chin (陳)” from 4 counties: Toishan with 480 entries (this is the one I am interested in); and the rest in other counties: Sun Wui, Hoiping and Chung Shan.

341	"	"	"	永盛 / Wing Shing (陳 / Chan)
342	"	"	"	禾狸頭 / Wo Lee Tau (陳 / Chan)
343	"	"	"	禾屋 / Wo Uk (陳 / Chan)
344	"	"	"	黃 / Wong aka 河清 / Ho Ching (朱,陳 / Gee, Chan)
345	"	"	"	匯龍 / Wui Lung (陳 / Chan)
346	"	"	"	匯洞 / Wui Tung (陳 / Chan)

Looking through the 91 “三合鄉 / Sam Hop Heung” entries I found “黃 / Wong
aka 河清 / Ho Ching (朱, 陳 / Gee, Chan). “

This has the village name wrong but the hamlet correct.

From Google

There are two ways to search the Village DB:

1. The surname is Romanized in one or two ways in Cantonese plus the Chinese character. (This is what I did.)

2. The village name may be in Chinese, Cantonese, or pinyin.

If you know Chinese then this is the sure-fire way to do the search.

Q. What if I don't know Chinese.

A. Then you can use Cantonese or Pinyin to search for the village name.

Pinyin would be better since Pinyin has standardized Romanization.

Cantonese has no standard, not as good (could be many different ways of spelling the same character).

Neither Pinyin nor Cantonese would guarantee success.

The Chinese character(s) would be the best.

Q. What if I don't know Chinese?
A. Look for an App "OCR for Chinese"

- I tried "HanYou"
- Just point your iPhone camera at some Chinese characters
- This app instantly translates the Chinese into English or another target language

Xinhui dried tangerine with Yunnan pu-er tea.

This family in Hong Kong has kept this bag of dried tangerine peels over 60 years. The estimated value is about USD$128K. This photo is captured from Eastweek Magazine.

Suppose we want to find the village(s) in the Village DB for the surname 薛 h. Xēik c. Sit3 p. Xuē but interested party spells it as Seid. And we know that the village is in Sun Wui.

Use the Chinese character 薛 and search by surname. It is listed under Sit(薛).

Search by surname

Search for villages with surname Sit (薛) Search

The Search Results show only one village with 薛 as the surname in Sun Wui and the village is 松朗村 / Chung Long Village.

Search results

#	County	Area	Heung	Village
1	台山 / Toishan	1	溫泉鄉 / Wan Chuen Heung (4 subheungs)	老薛 / Lo Sit (薛,鄺,葉 / Sit, Fong, Yip)
2	新會 / Sun Wui	3	桐井鄉 / Tung Cheng Heung (11 villages)	松朗村 / Chung Long Village (李,薛 / Lee, Sit)
3	中山 / Chung Shan	5	康濟 / Hong Chai (10 villages)	南溪 / Nam Kai (張,黎,李,陳,盧,吳,薛 / Cheung, lai, Lee, Chan, Lo, Ng, Sit)

So this is a good place to start.

I type 广东省江门市新会区松朗村 into a Baidu map. It found 5 results, none of which was in Xinhui.

I typed “Songlang, Xinhui, Jiangmen, Guangdong” into Google map.

It gave one result. Looks promising.

The only trouble is this Songlang Village is in Taishan, not Xinhui.

Frustrating! Needs more research!
